MEETING MINUTES DEC. 17

The air was thick with anticipation. Members showed up in droves, awaiting this year's election results. Yea, sure, some people forgot to bring their ballots, so napkins would suffice for voting. We're not picky about the details. There sat Mister President, Lisa B., Patrick M., Gretchen, Kari, Allan, Wendy, Craig, Mike, and Pat L. Guests included Doug Hill, and Brian Kletch. ☆ So, the chicks ruled this year. Elected as the top three officials were none other than Lisa B. as President, Wendy as Vice, and Kari as Word Steward. Think it a coincidence that all three of these women commute to work five to six days a week on their motorcycles? Two of the three have no car. Thought these details were worth boasting about. ☆ RIDE REPORTS: Ahhh, people went on rides for sure. What do you think we are, a club of motorcyclists who sit around just talking about riding? I don't think so. ☆ Contact the awards committee to share all the fun (and stupid) things that members did throughout the year. We'll present these "awards" at the annual dinner February 1. Contact Wendy (650.992.1234 • wendy@missionmotorcycles.com) or Mike (925.798.0189 • catfish@silcon.com) if you have a story to share. ☆ NEW BIKES: Patrick Lydon has 100 miles on his new FJR1300. Go Patrick! Earl gussied up his brand new CR250 with pretty paneling and makeup... er, paint. You can't even recognized it; it's an original, you're darn tootin'. ☆ Hey guess who's up for nomination at our next meeting? Doug Hill. ☆ Mike's still yearning as to when his WR450 is scheduled to arrive. Wendy's still putting him off, respectfully.—Lisa B.
