August 2005:

The meeting opened with 12 people present including 1 guests, Ruby Red herself. Stickers are available at the meetings. Two bucks each. Membership for life was discussed again and maybe for the last time.

Try this one on for size. what Bike would You Choose Next if you could have any thing your hart desires? Da Prez queried.

Rides--- Pat Lydon visited Rene on a ride to the Sierra's. Paula did a ride at Moto GP and made Craigums ride bitch. Moto GP-the carts were interesting SuperStock was exciting and windy helicoptered in and out for a speeding good time. Doug rode Kings Canyon-lots of water-spent the night in Three River after a 100 Degree Valley crossing. whew dats HOT. Her beautiful self Ms Prez did the commute thing to Sac in 100 Degree heat. Dats really Hot-both. Craig set land speed records from LA to Home. Something like 4.5 hours at light speed. He must have one of them Jet bikes like J Leno. And it was hot too. Gary got out to see the speedy folk in the Nascar world at Infinion and you know they were hot on all fours wheels. Julio and Ruby took the 20 year old VFR750 out for a spin and breakfast before it got to hot out. Mike continues to improve the Caponor even though Quote " It's a pig".

New Bikes--- Paula- Squeezed some poor soul hard enough that they practically gave her the ultra low mile dual sportster with a Yoshi Pipe, two sets of tires, a skid plate and a cammo tank bra or was that a cammo bra. Just what a city girl needs. And that was Hot too. Oh yea Keri has a new KLR also. I forgot to mention that in the last news letter.

We have lots of money according to Alan.

Come to the next meeting for all the detail about the Paula's Lassen-Drakesbad outing and Moon light dinners on the Mountain

The Wordy Steward Earl

PS Steve Hursh is getting married Sept 10th
And that deserves a big hot him.
